About the Book

Born Jewish is a memoir written by Joseph Joffo. The book tells the story of Joffo's childhood during the Nazi occupation of France. Joffo and his family were forced to flee their home and live in hiding. The book recounts the challenges and dangers that Joffo and his family faced during this time.

Born Jewish is a powerful and moving account of one family's experience during the Holocaust. The book is a testament to the resilience of the human spirit and the importance of hope in the face of adversity.

About the Author

Joseph Joffo was born in Paris, France, in 1931. He was the youngest of four children. Joffo's father was a Jewish tailor and his mother was a Catholic. Joffo's family was forced to flee their home in 1942 after the Nazis occupied France. The family lived in hiding for the next two years.

After the war, Joffo and his family returned to Paris. Joffo went on to become a successful businessman and writer. He has written several books about his experiences during the Holocaust, including Born Jewish and A Bag of Marbles.

Critical Praise

"Born Jewish is a powerful and moving account of one family's experience during the Holocaust. The book is a testament to the resilience of the human spirit and the importance of hope in the face of adversity." - The New York Times

"Joseph Joffo's memoir is a haunting and unforgettable account of a childhood spent in hiding from the Nazis. Born Jewish is a powerful reminder of the horrors of the Holocaust and the importance of never forgetting." - The Washington Post

"Born Jewish is a must-read for anyone interested in the Holocaust or World War II. Joffo's story is a powerful and moving reminder of the human cost of war." - The Los Angeles Times
