Step into the quaint Italian countryside and meet Strega Nona, a beloved old witch with a heart of gold and a knack for making the most delicious pasta in the village. But don't be fooled by her sweet exterior, for she is also a master of both potions and magic.

One sunny morning, Strega Nona decides to give her clumsy assistant, Big Anthony, a magic pasta pot to help him make the perfect pasta for the hungry villagers. However, Big Anthony's well-intentioned but bumbling nature leads to a series of comical mishaps that threatens to turn the village into a sea of noodles.

A Timeless Tale of Magic and Mischief

Strega Nona is a symphony of Italian folklore, laughter, and heartwarming lessons. Through the hilarious adventures of Strega Nona and Big Anthony, children learn about the importance of following instructions, the power of kindness, and the consequences of our actions.

Tomie dePaola's vibrant illustrations are a feast for the eyes, capturing the essence of the Italian countryside and bringing the characters to life with their expressive faces and comical gestures.
