The Eye of Horus, an iconic symbol of protection, power, and healing, is the central motif of this collection. Also known as the Udjat or Wadjet, this mystical eye was associated with the falcon-headed god Horus, who represented the sky and the sun. Ancient Egyptians believed that the Eye of Horus possessed the ability to ward off evil spirits, promote health and well-being, and guide the souls of the deceased into the afterlife.

Our Counted Cross Stitch Egyptian Collection features a range of intricate designs inspired by ancient Egyptian art and hieroglyphics. Each design captures the essence of this captivating culture, inviting you to explore the grandeur of the pharaohs' tombs, decipher the secrets of hieroglyphic inscriptions, and marvel at the architectural wonders of the pyramids.
