

Explore The World's Most Famous Trade Route With 20 Projects: Build It Yourself

The Silk Road was a network of trade routes that connected the East and West for over 2,000 years. It was a major conduit for the exchange of goods, ideas, and culture, and it played a significant role in the development of both the East and the West.

Today, the Silk Road is once again a major focus of interest, as countries around the world seek to revive the ancient trade routes. This has led to a renewed interest in the history and culture of the Silk Road, as well as a desire to learn more about the people and places that were involved in this great trade network.

Project 1: Build a Model of the Silk Road

This project is a great way to learn about the geography of the Silk Road. You will use a variety of materials to create a model of the trade route, including a map, yarn, and beads.

Materials:

* A large piece of cardboard or foam board * A map of the Silk Road * Yarn
* Beads * Glue * Scissors

Instructions:

1. Cut a piece of cardboard or foam board to the desired size of your model. 2. Glue the map of the Silk Road to the cardboard or foam board. 3. Use yarn to create the trade routes. 4. Use beads to represent the cities and towns along the Silk Road. 5. Glue the yarn and beads to the cardboard or foam board.

Project 2: Make a Silk Road Trading Card Game

This project is a fun way to learn about the goods that were traded along the Silk Road. You will create a deck of trading cards, each of which features a different good. You can then use the trading cards to play a game.

Materials:

* A deck of playing cards * A list of goods that were traded along the Silk Road * Scissors * Glue

Instructions:

1. Cut out the backs of the playing cards. 2. Glue a list of goods that were traded along the Silk Road to the backs of the playing cards. 3. Cut out the fronts of the playing cards. 4. Glue the fronts of the playing cards to the backs of the playing cards.

Project 3: Write a Story About the Silk Road

This project is a great way to use your imagination to explore the Silk Road. You will write a story about a trader or traveler who journeys along the Silk Road.

Materials:

* Paper * Pencil * Imagination

Instructions:

1. Think about what kind of story you want to write. 2. Choose a main character for your story. 3. Decide what kind of journey your main character will take. 4. Write your story.

Project 4: Create a Silk Road Timeline

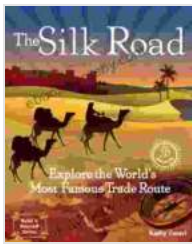

This project is a great way to learn about the history of the Silk Road. You will create a timeline of the major events that occurred along the Silk Road.

Materials:

* A long piece of paper * A list of major events that occurred along the Silk Road * Markers or crayons

Instructions:

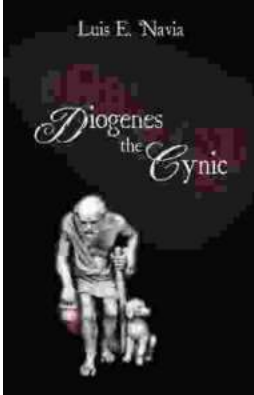

1. Draw a line down the center of the paper. 2. Write the dates of the major events that occurred along the Silk Road on the line. 3. Use markers or crayons to draw pictures of the major events.
