The book is divided into 10 chapters, each of which focuses on a different challenge that we all face. These challenges include:

- Parallel parking
- Public speaking
- Going to the doctor
- Dealing with difficult people
- Getting lost
- Making friends
- Dating
- Getting a job
- Paying bills
- Aging

Each chapter is full of funny stories and relatable anecdotes that will make you laugh out loud. But the book also offers practical advice on how to deal with these challenges with a sense of humor. For example, the chapter on parallel parking includes tips on how to choose the right spot, how to line up your car, and how to avoid hitting the curb. The chapter on public speaking includes tips on how to overcome your fear, how to prepare your speech, and how to deliver it with confidence.

Parallel Parking Is Easy And Other Lies is a funny and heartwarming book that will help you see the humor in the everyday struggles of life. It's a must-read for anyone who wants to live a happier, more fulfilling life.
