The Eiffel Tower

The Eiffel Tower is one of the most iconic landmarks in the world. It was built in 1889 as the entrance arch for the 1889 World's Fair in Paris, France. The tower is named after the engineer who designed it, Gustave Eiffel. The Eiffel Tower is made of wrought iron and is 1,063 feet tall. It is the tallest structure in Paris and one of the most visited tourist attractions in the world.

The Eiffel Tower has three levels that visitors can access by elevator or stairs. The first level is 197 feet high and offers views of the Champ de Mars and the surrounding area. The second level is 377 feet high and offers even more stunning views. The third level is 906 feet high and offers the best views of all. From the third level, you can see for miles in every direction. The Eiffel Tower is a truly amazing sight and is a must-see for any visitor to Paris.
