Secrets That Haunt

As the story unfolds, we are introduced to the Culhane sisters: Lily, Rose, and Violet. Each woman carries her own burden of secrets, hidden from the world. Lily, the eldest, struggles with the guilt of past mistakes that continue to torment her. Rose, the middle child, grapples with a devastating betrayal that threatens to tear her family apart. And Violet, the youngest, faces her own demons as she tries to escape the shadows of her upbringing.

Betrayal that Tests Limits

The Culhane family is bound together by a complex web of relationships. However, these connections are tested when betrayals come to light. Trust is broken, loyalties are questioned, and the family's foundation is shaken to its core. As the sisters navigate these treacherous waters, they must confront their own culpability and the consequences of their actions.

Unbreakable Bonds Amidst the Storm

Despite the secrets and betrayals that threaten to tear them apart, the Culhane sisters remain steadfast in their love for one another. Their bond is unbreakable, tested by time and hardship. Through their shared experiences, they find strength and resilience, proving that even in the darkest of times, family ties can prevail.
