A Thrilling Descent into Secrets and Suspense

Prepare to be captivated by "The Cousins," a gripping mystery novel that unravels the tangled threads of a family torn apart by a tragic event. Karen McManus, the acclaimed author of "One of Us Is Lying," weaves a spellbinding tale of intrigue, deceit, and the complexities of human nature.

The Disappearance of a Cousin

The story revolves around three cousins: Milly, Aubrey, and Jonah. Their lives are forever altered when their beloved cousin, Lily, vanishes without a trace. As they navigate the aftermath of her disappearance, they stumble upon a world of hidden agendas and unsettling secrets that cast doubt on everything they thought they knew.

A Web of Deception

With each revelation, Milly, Aubrey, and Jonah find themselves drawn deeper into a treacherous web of deceit. They must confront their own demons, question their loved ones, and unravel the layers of lies that have been carefully constructed to conceal the truth.

Unreliable Narrators, Suspect Characters

McManus masterfully employs unreliable narrators and suspect characters to create an atmosphere of doubt and suspicion. The reader is constantly kept on the edge, questioning who to trust and who is hiding something. The line between truth and deception blurs, leaving the reader guessing until the very end.

A Chilling Family Mystery

"The Cousins" is more than just a mystery novel; it's a deep dive into the complexities of family dynamics. It explores the bonds of kinship, the weight of secrets, and the lengths people will go to protect those they love.

A Page-Turner that Will Keep You Captivated

From the first page to the final revelation, "The Cousins" is an unputdownable page-turner that will keep you hooked. McManus's skillful storytelling and intricate plot will leave you breathless as you race to uncover the truth alongside Milly, Aubrey, and Jonah.
